ODE TO A TOPSIDER
sung to the tune
of ON TOP OF OLD
SMOKIE

On top of my sidlers,
Are stains of red clay,
So worn in and comfy,
Won't throw them away.

They've lasted five summers,
And five years of school.
They've been stepped on in hallways,
And thrown in the pool.

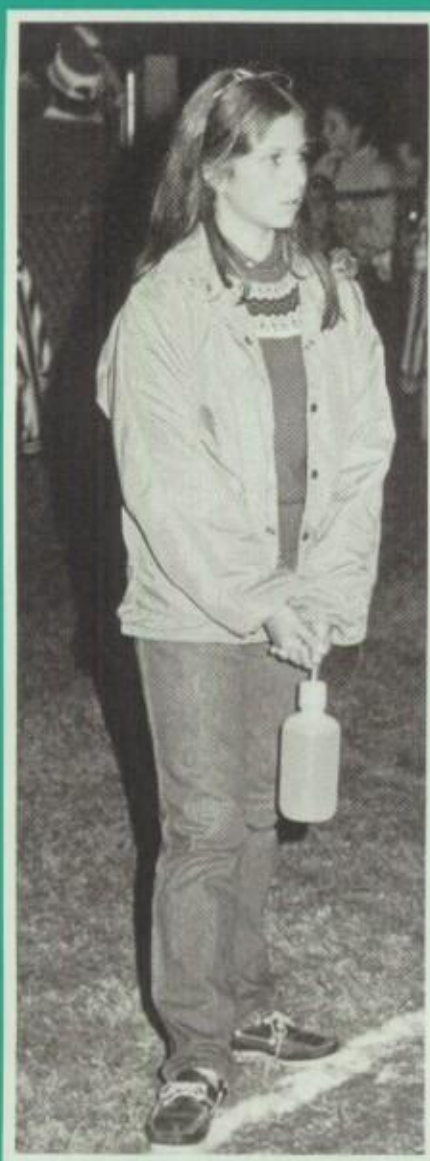

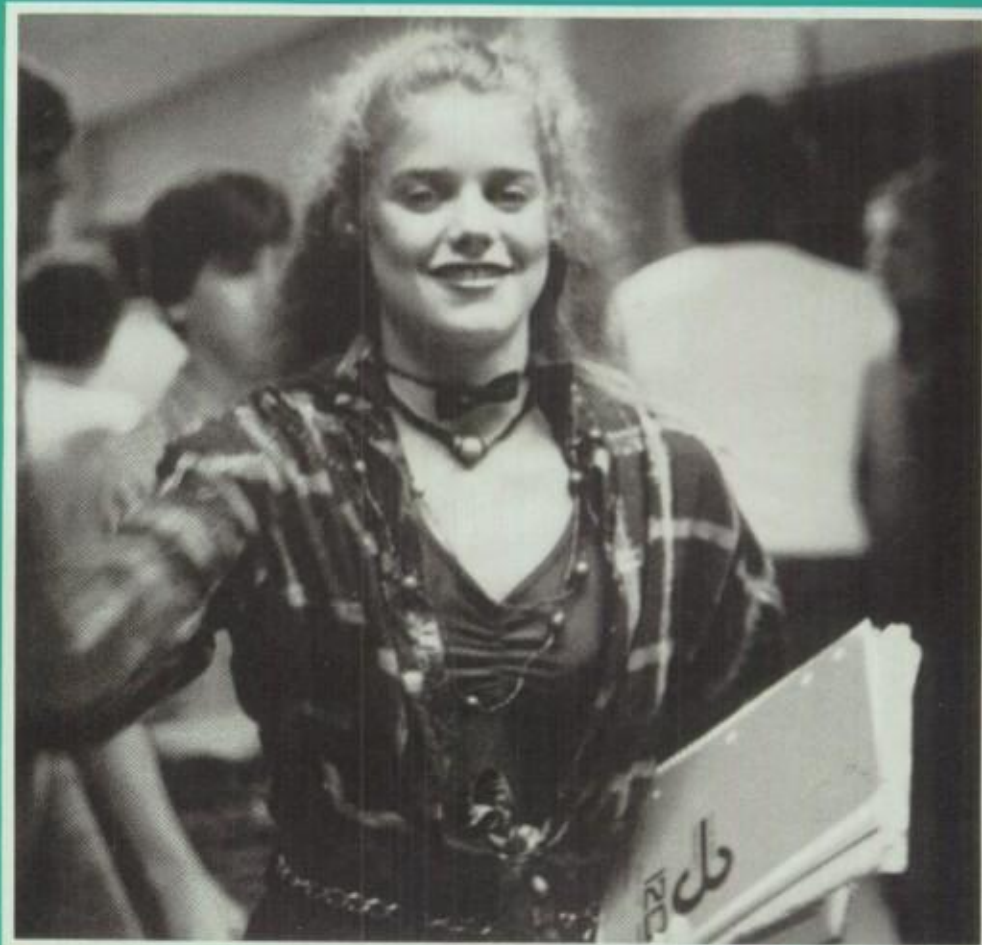

I've worn them with khakis,
And my cord pants too.
They've been paired with gym
shorts,
And my Levi's of blue.

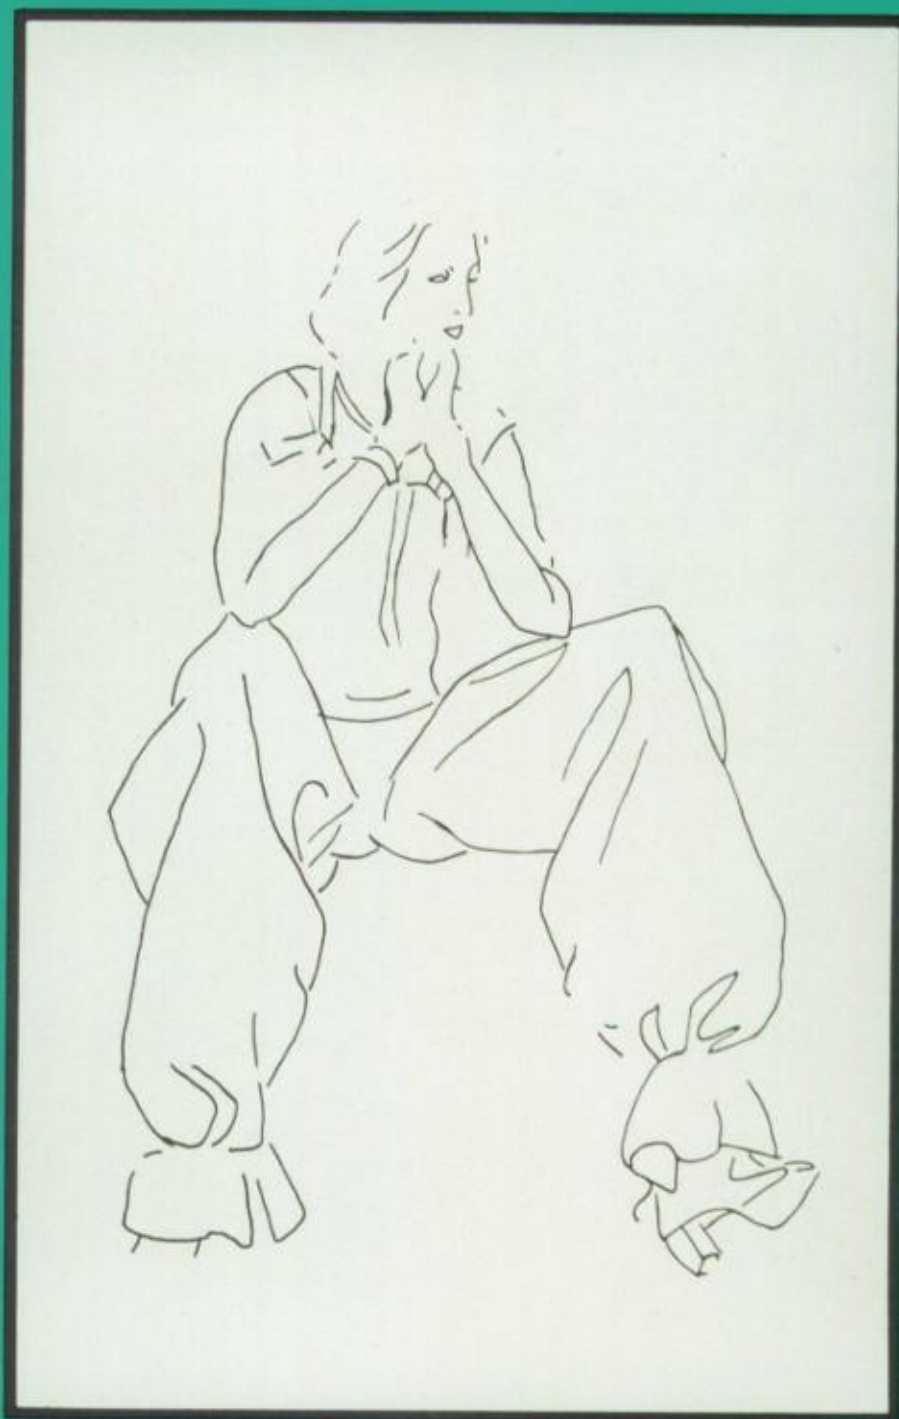

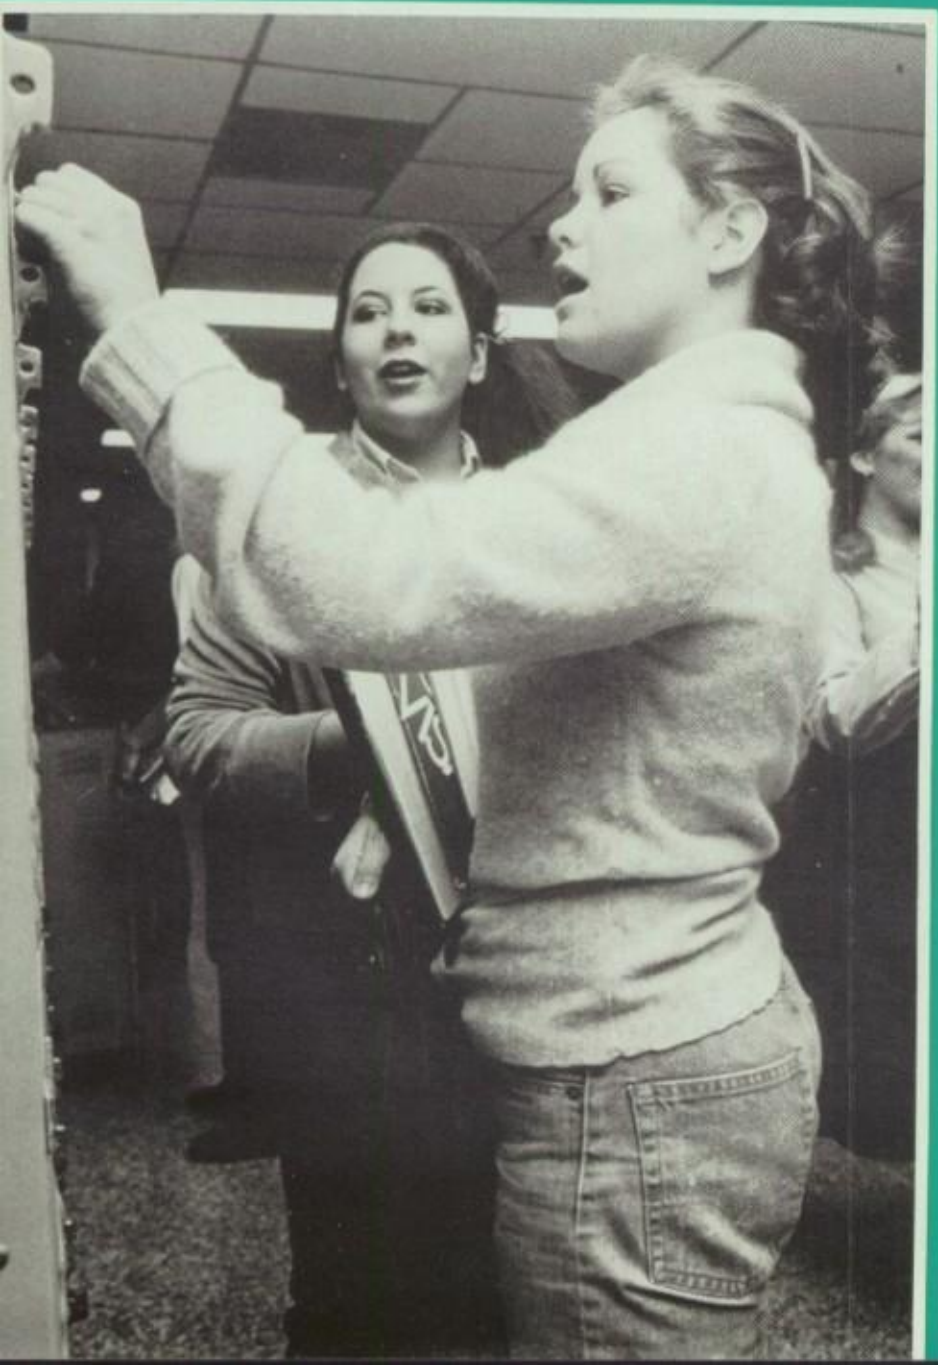

The day of graduation,
Is now drawing near.
I hope my topsiders,
Will last one more year.

THE RIVERWOOD STYLE

The Riverwood Style-in a class all by itself-an amalgamation of the old and new, rugged and practical, Western and casual, flashy and fancy, classic yet timely apparel. The mark of a person is reflected by what he/she wears, and here at Riverwood, the variety is endless . . .

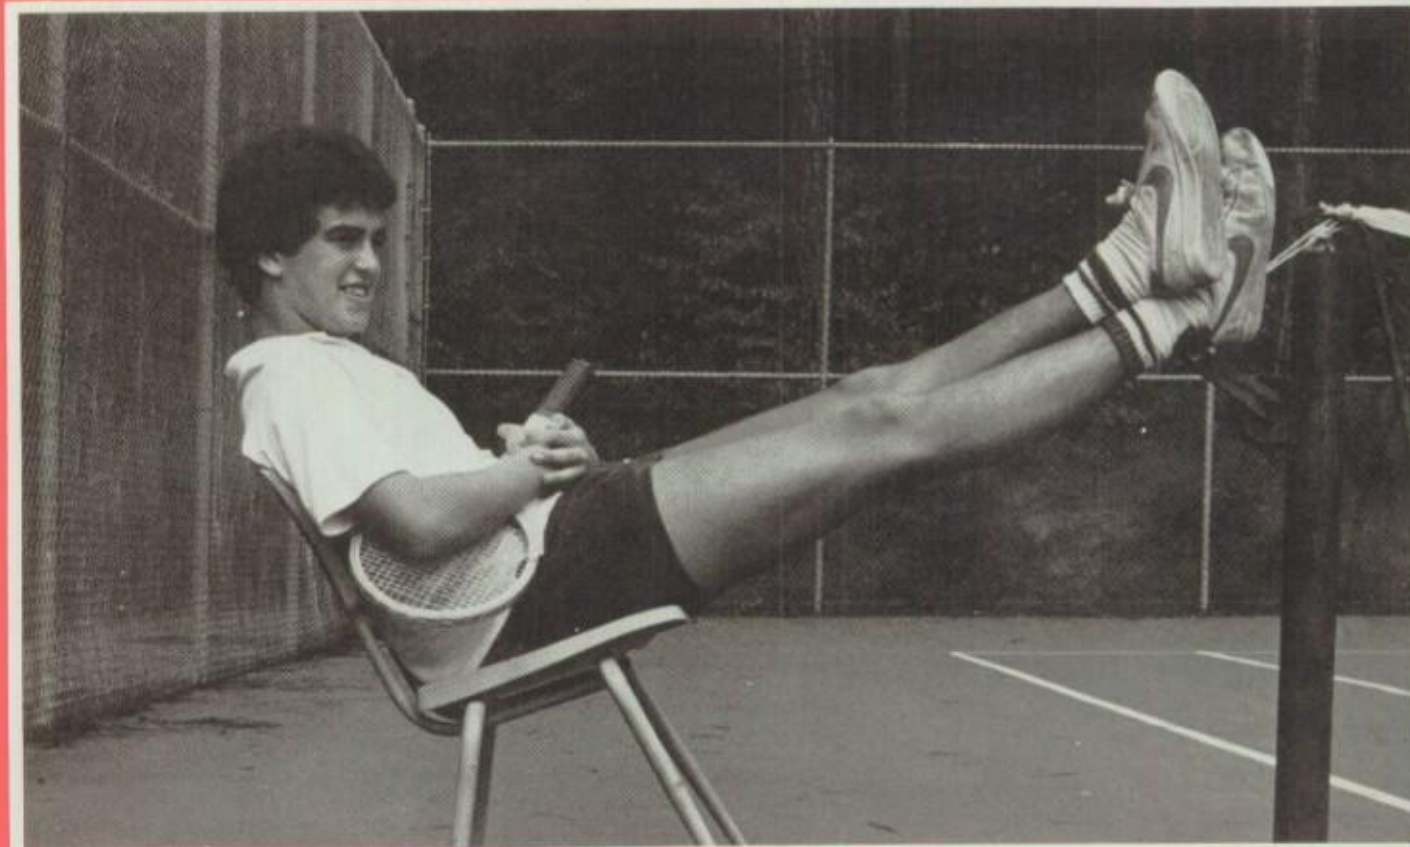

THE RIVERWOOD STYLE

Cultured, classy, and cosmopolitan...

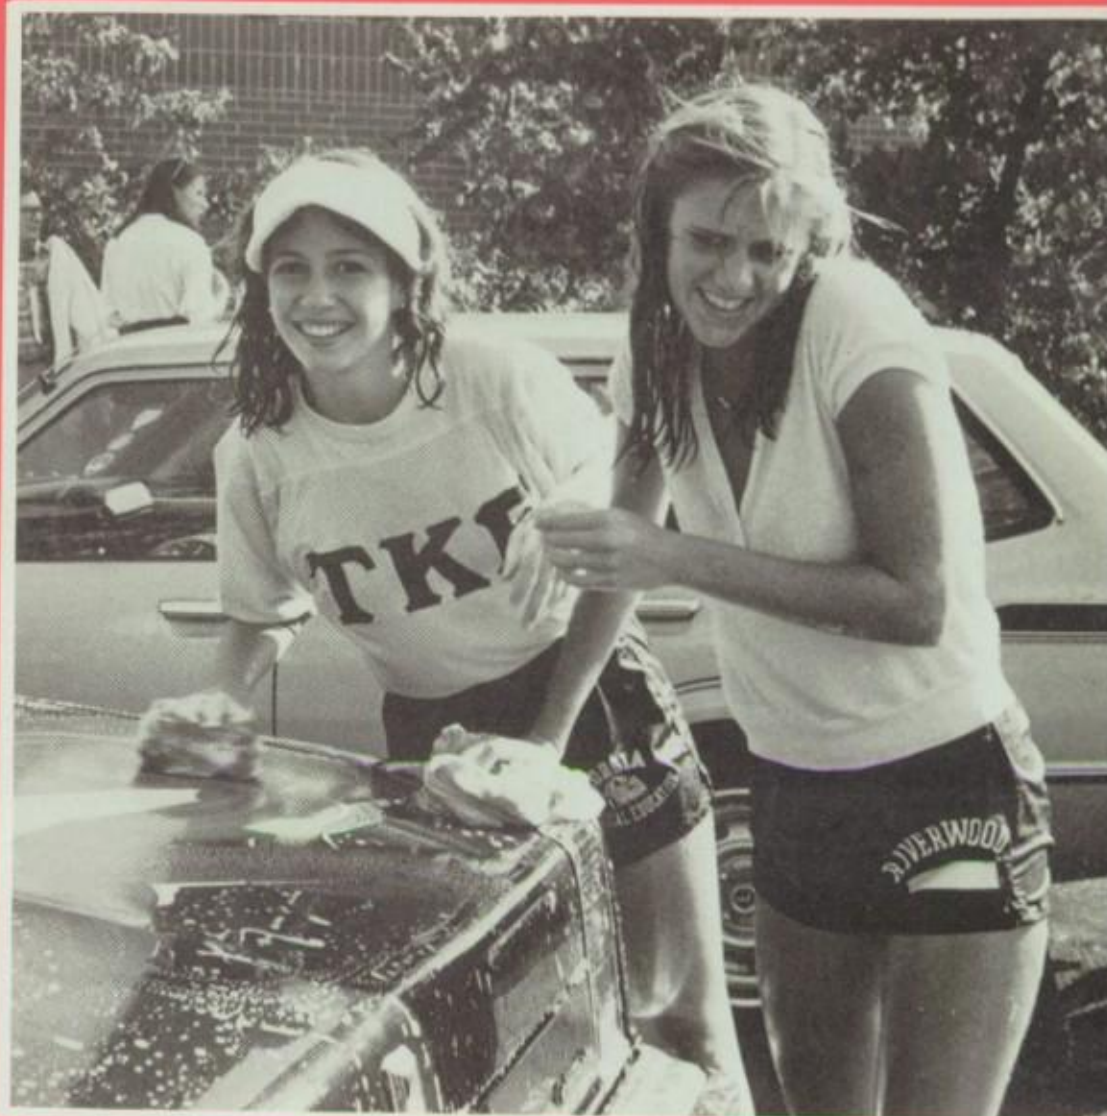

Sleek, sexy, the special feeling of men with finesse...

Relaxed, casual, and completely layed back...

Young, spirited, and full of spunk ...

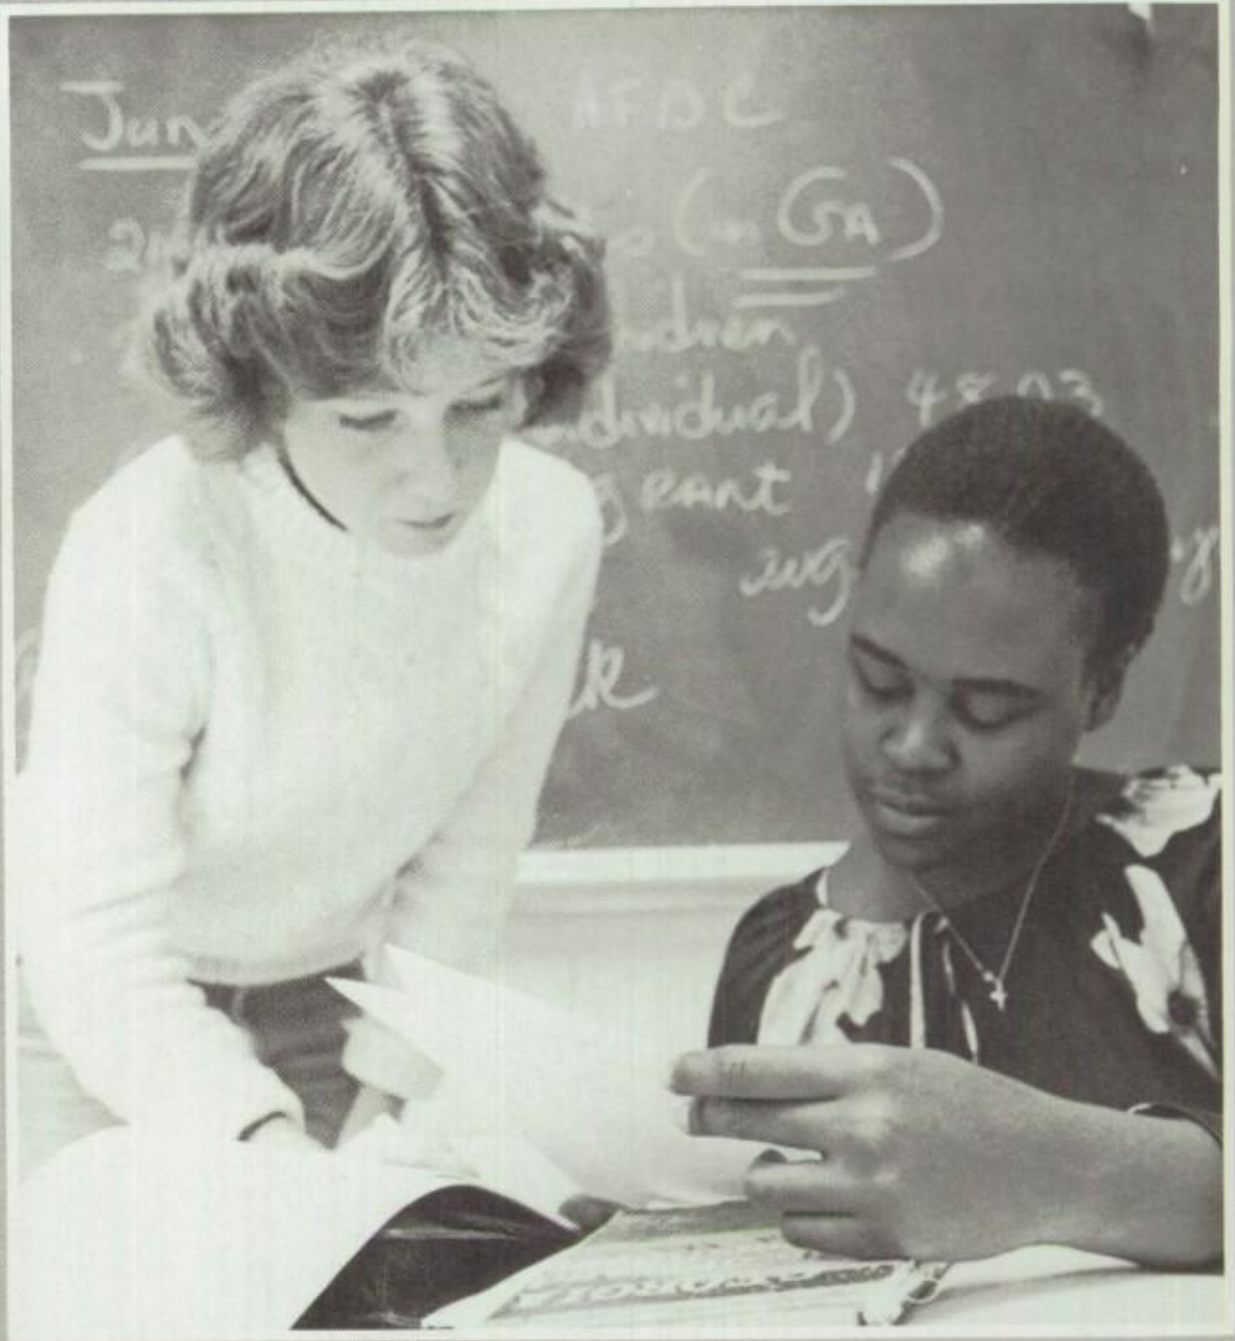

Absolutely tasteless ...

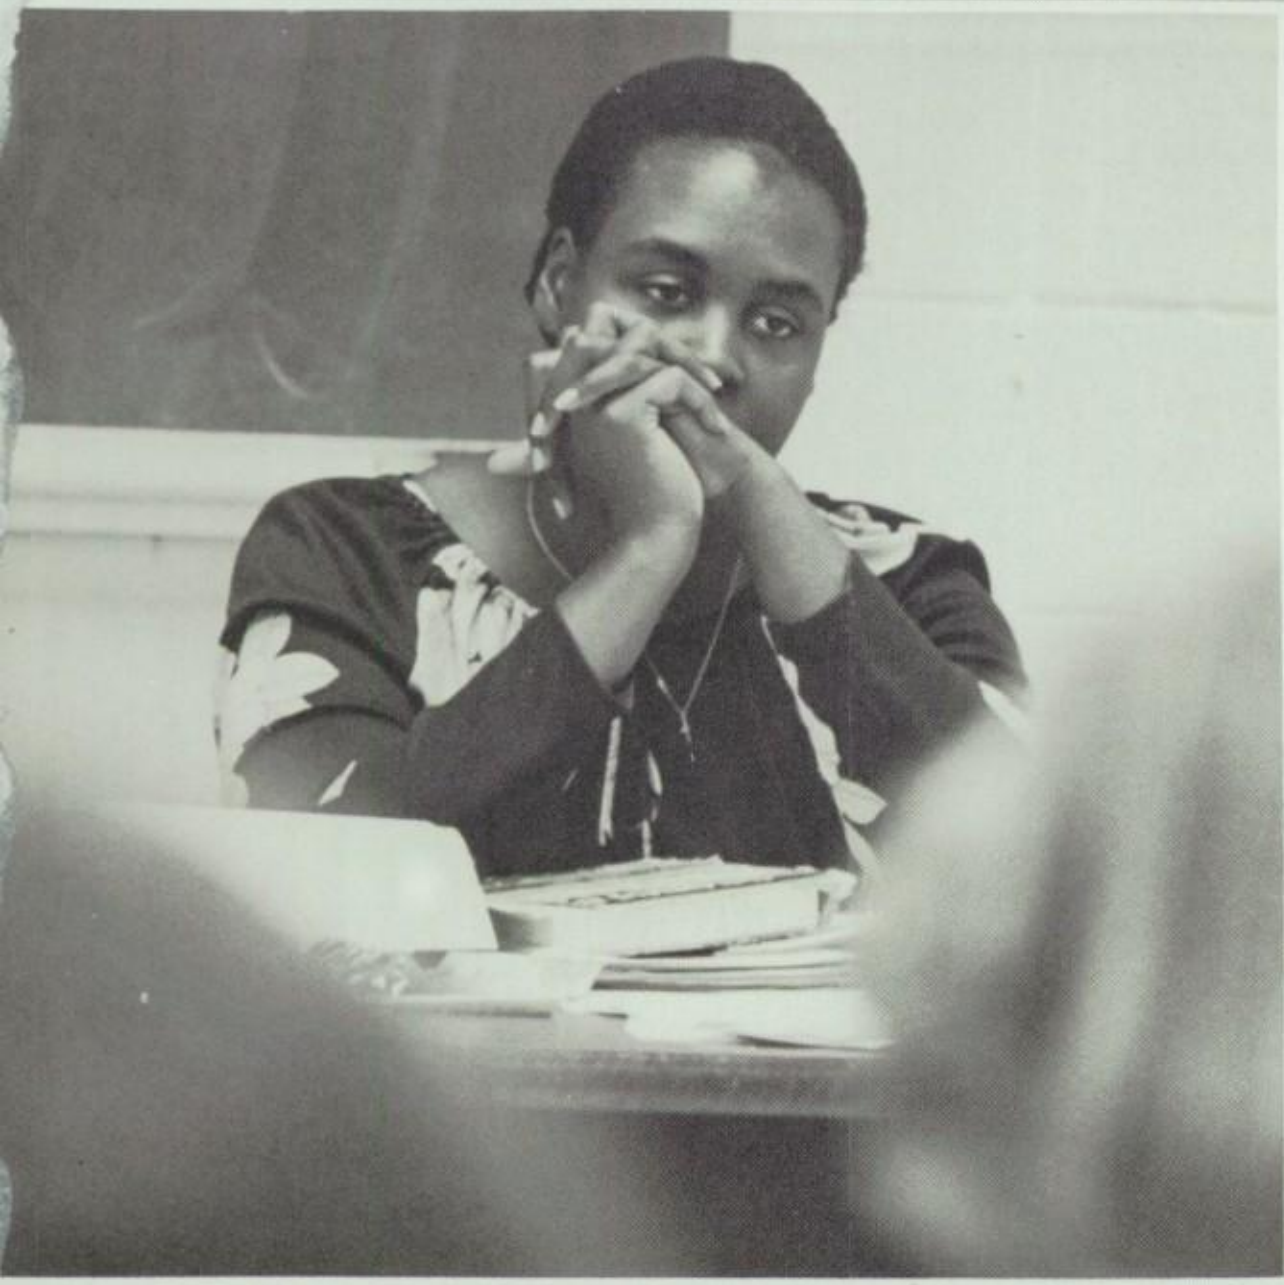

The Riverwood Style? Totally outrageous!

HOW WOODIE PERSONS

This outstanding teacher combines the dynamic ability to teach with being involved in the school and caring for her students. Her methods of teaching penetrate the most stubborn mind and her enthusiasm for the subjects she teaches invites a higher degree of learning. Ms. Persons, the very first Miss Black Atlanta, has been very influential during her five year stay at Riverwood. Besides singing almost every year in various variety shows, she has been the Historical Society sponsor, AVA Tutoring sponsor, and the past Beta Club sponsor. We dedicate this annual to a truly great teacher who can combine wit and dedication—Ms. Woodie Persons.

The Riverwood Science Fiction Society is, without a doubt, the most misunderstood club at Riverwood. Their interest in SF (NOT sci-fi) comes from their attitudes about the future—simply, that it's coming and they should be ready for the challenges it will bring. The Force is with them, after all!

THE RED AND BLUE

Putting out a school newspaper is not an easy task, as the Red and Blue staff discovered this year. Weekly meetings include seminars on layout, advertising, and writing. John Gillin, Loris Green and Mrs. Atwood deserve credit for an all-out effort to produce an excellent paper.

Mrs. Lanning did Love.

The Theme? The Theme?
What shall it be?
Western? Mythology?
A show from TV?

Clothes! Fashion!
They are a must,
"Dressed To Kill" was our motto
Because it was us.

We worked very hard,
Day after day.
We pondered and slaved,
Without any pay.

Pictures were taken
(Four or five times).
Rob drew the artwork.
We bought Formatt lines.

We squealed and shouted
And argued a bunch.
We had many parties,
And how we did munch.

We searched for good candid.
We searched for 3 R's.
We searched for the Formatt.
We ate candy bars.

Now that it's over
We have no regrets
'Cause we had lots of fun,
And our deadlines were met (Almost).

CELEBRATION

SPIRIT

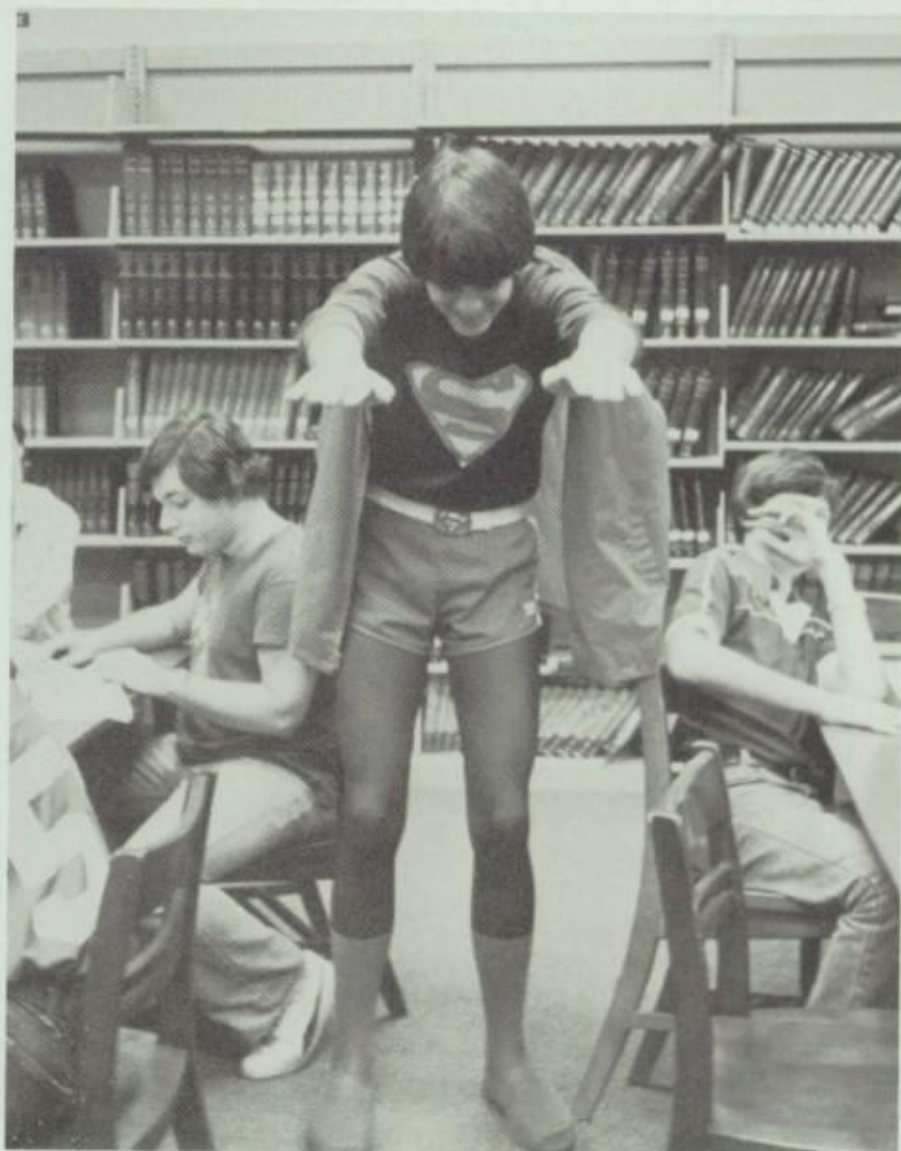

WEEK

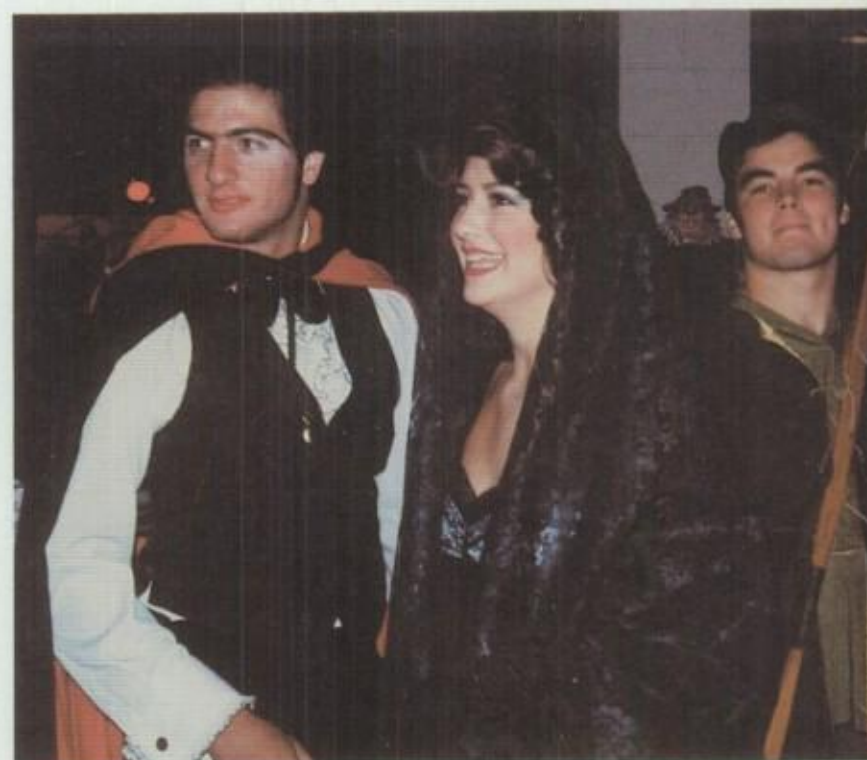

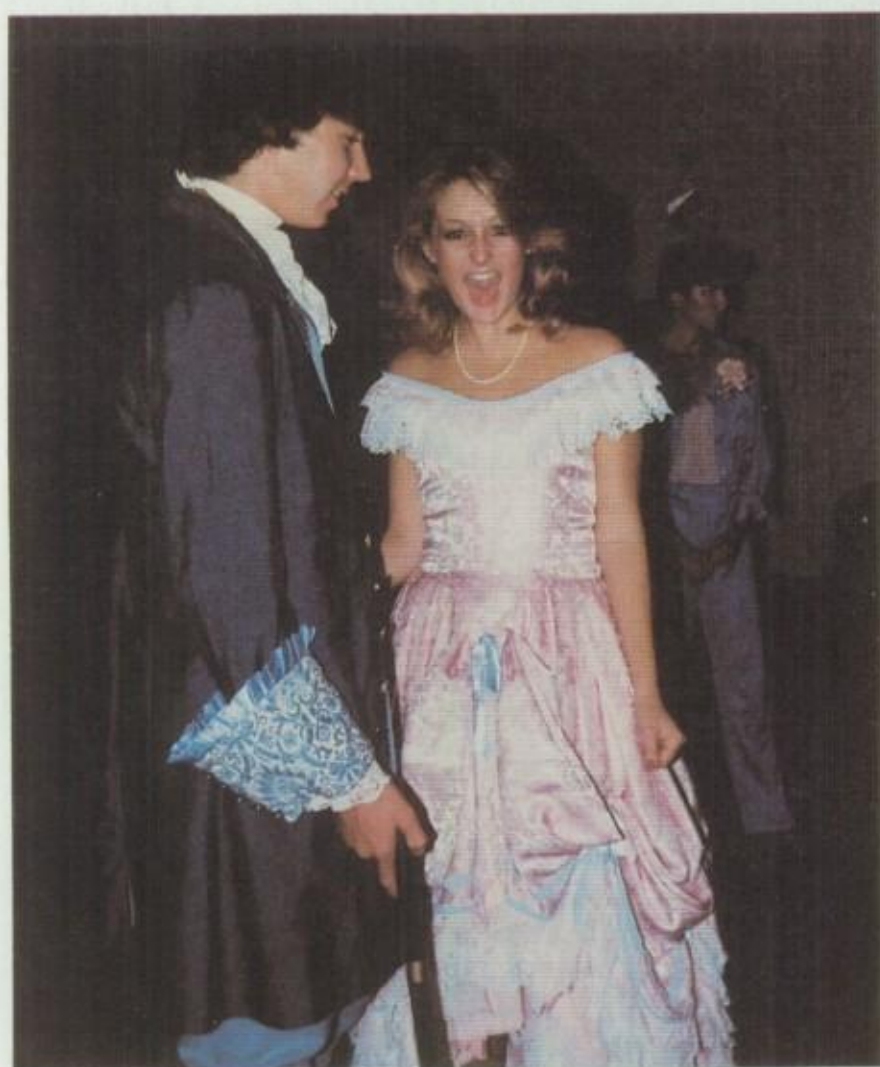

It takes a unique individual to express the necessary, unifying element by which institutions such as ours thrive, yet even the most unique person may have an intense build-up of this emotion because of a lack of popular participation. For this reason, our institution of learning allows it's body to "open the floodgate" for a full attenda-ble week. As everyone knows by now, these five days are known as SPIRIT WEEK, when the true individual shows through the top layer.

CABARET

This year the Chorale presented its annual Cabaret dinner Theatre in November. Individual acts composed the first half of the show. These various performances included "Sincerely" by Deborah Donaldson, Christi Trainor, and Lindsey Perkins, "Mockinbird" by Laura Klausman and Tim Hepburn, and "Old Man River" by Jeff Hughes. Next the Chorale, assisted by the Girl's Ensemble, served a spaghetti dinner.

Then the entire Chorale presented its own version of a Broadway show by combining excerpts from shows featuring "Annie," "The wiz," and "The King and I."

The Riverwood Marching Band, the Red Machine, provided the script for coordinated and colorful performances in Riverwood's record-breaking football season! The cast of band players delivered poignant lines "Band!" "Sara!" 1-2-ready-go. No, No-it's 16 steps out-not 18! Try it again. Drums! Take it easy. You're Not the whole show ... 7:15 AGAIN tomorrow?! What does he think we are? Rained out again! Mr. Gerace! Well, folks, we did it! Show's over ... Good job, guys!

RIFLE CORPS

From flaming batons to satin shorts, the majorettes and rifle corps added sparkle to the halftime shows for Riverwood's 1980 football season. These dazzling performers combined fun, hard work and dedication, which their cries during practice reveal: O.K. everyone-don't run into the flag corps ... keep in step-everybody has to look the same ... let's try that again from the top ... I'm freezing, Mr. Gerace, can't we go in?! My curlers are falling. It's Friday already ... we're on in a few minutes! Remember to smile. Great show, girls! From summer camp to pep rallies, being a member of the rifle corps or the majorettes is a year-round job. Melanie and Sherry worked hard to create new moves for the shows, and these corps continue to be an enjoyable tradition at Riverwood.

Even though the Drill Team diminished in numbers this year, they did not decrease in energy. The girls faithfully appeared at 7:15 several mornings a week, adorned in curlers, ready to practice the week's routine. The talented captains devised many new moves for the squad, and with everyone's spirit and cooperation, this year was a successful season of halftime performances!

ABNER

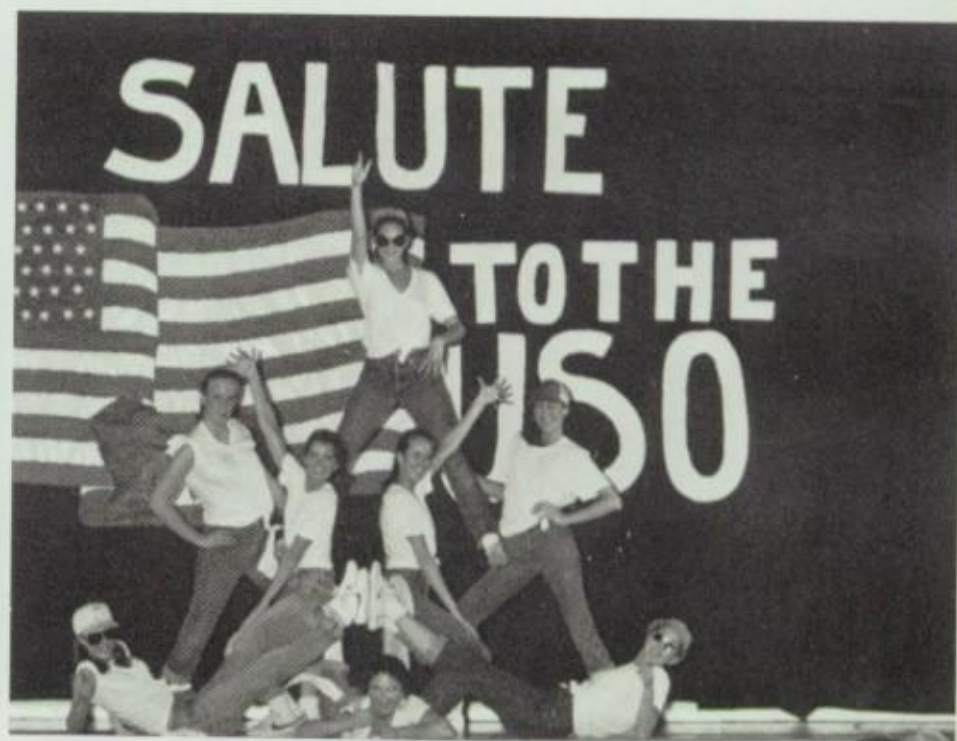

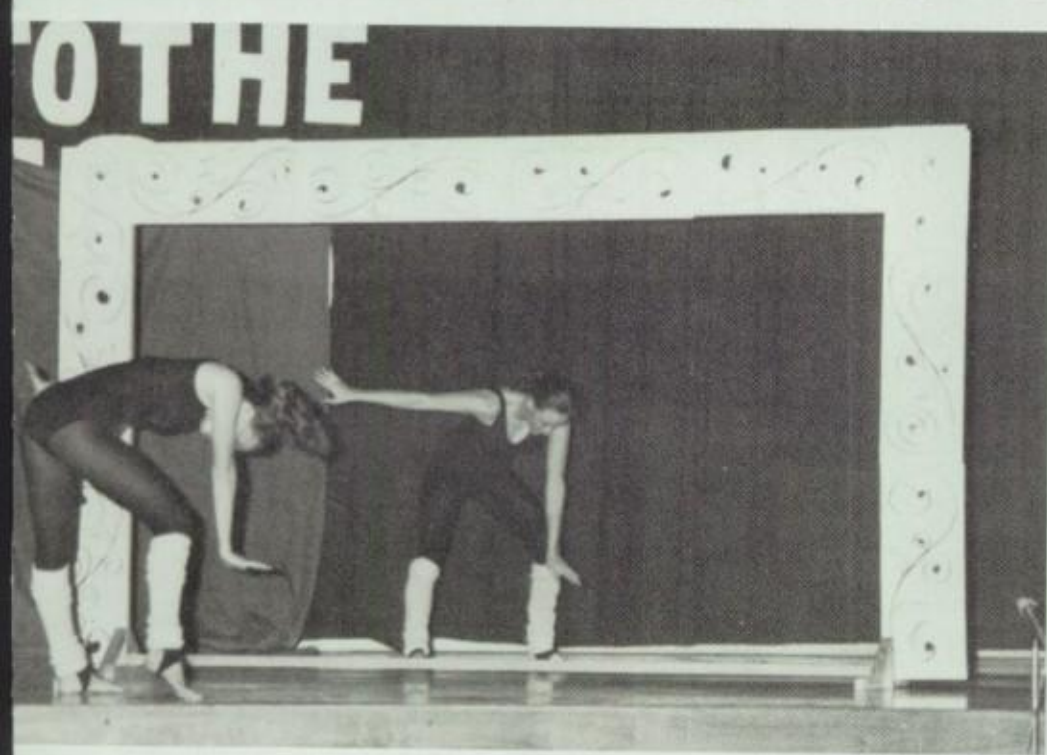

Ladies and Gentlemen: Announcing the Rihiscan debut of Riverwood's spring play! Roll your eyes over these unique pages and you will see the production of "Li'l Abner." You will see the sultry Apassionata von Climax and the notorious Fleagle plot against the red-blooded Abner. You will see the sad sight of sweet Daisy Mae selflessly offering to marry another in order to save Abner's life. The firey Mammy and Pappy Yokum add to the scenes of hilarity. These characters, played by Riverwood students, put forth a fantastic amount of effort and presented a super musical to the Riverwood student body and parents. Thank you!!

REVIEW

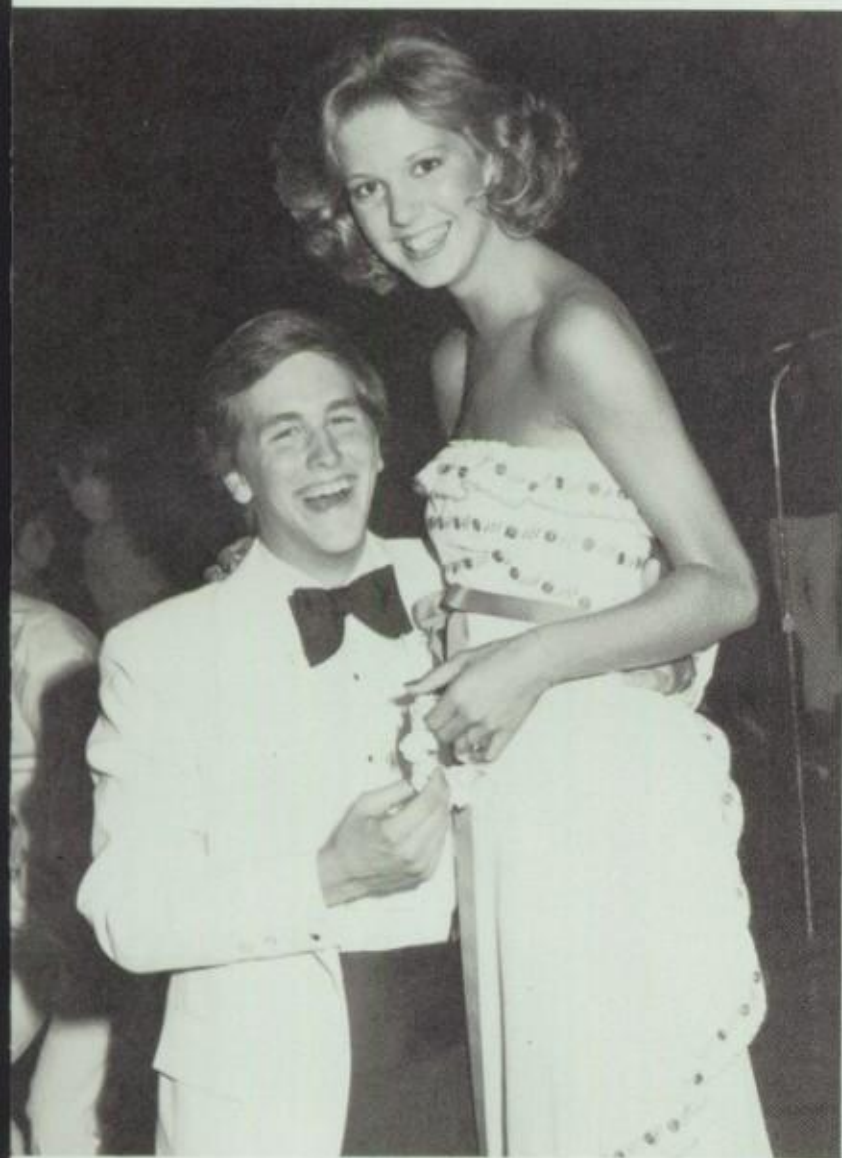

This year's Musical Revue was a salute to the U.S.O. It combined group acts with the Girl's Ensemble as well as individual acts. The Girl's Ensemble performed dances to "Another Openin'," "Step To The Rear," and "Consider Yourself." Each class did their own original dances. The sophomores shook their way through "Greased Lighting." Doing a take-off from Solid Gold were the juniors. The seniors, excited about graduation, danced to "Celebration." U.S.O. being the theme to the show, "Bugle Boy" was sung by Gayle Oliver, Wendy Solomon, and Corinne Coughlin. The Grand Finale was the Girl's Ensemble twisting, clapping, and turning with their guys to "Hand Jive."

Riverwood's Varsity Raiders practiced through August's heat and October's cold rain, but the hard work paid off when the Raiders recognized the most winning season in a long time. Despite the many team injuries, Coach Phillips led the Raiders to their 5-5 season. One of these victories was over Ridgview, a triumph which gave the Sandy Springs Classic trophy to Riverwood.

A consistent winning record has made Riverwood's Cross Country team synonymous with excellence, and this year's team, under the guidance of coach John Griffith, certainly upheld this winning tradition. Cross Country is a rigorous and exacting sport which requires many long, hard hours of practice each week. Senior co-captains Rob Lancaster and Frank Pittman led this dedicated and hard-working team to an undefeated regular season and a third place finish in the State Finals.

VARSITY TRACK

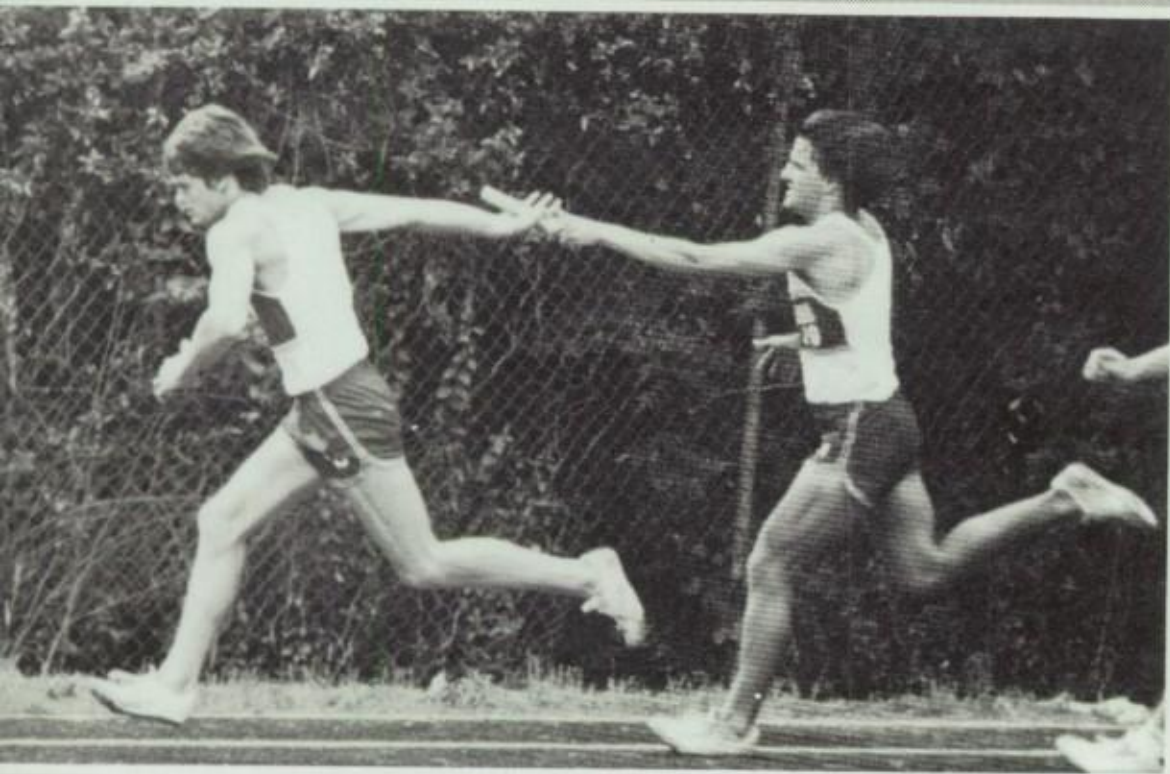

The 1981 Track Team ran to its best season in Riverwood history. Even though only one member qualified for the State Meet, records were constantly broken in both the field and relay events. Despite having a very young team, the Girls displayed an encouraging season and also put together an extremely competitive mile-relay team. The quality of both the Boys' and Girls' track teams is quickly improving as more athletes begin to take the sport seriously. Track is gradually on its way to becoming a major sport at Riverwood.

Due to circumstances beyond our control, we are not able to include the track team picture. This years team includes: P. Levine, S. Glover, J. Martinson, A. Robinson, H. Sheron, T. Panovka, E. Carr, J. Carr, K. Morris, N. Seligman, J. Weisman, L. Lanier, M. Macris, D. Gillen, J. Gillen, F. Pittman, C. Glover, T. Shirey, M. Thomson, J. Head, P. Tranokas, C. Chapman, D. Robertson, B. Both of Riverwood's tennis teams had winning seasons for the 9th consecutive year with the girls team being undefeated for the 2nd year in a row. Janette Baxter and Patty Nelson won the region doubles and Chris Belasco was a singles finalist. These victories and the contribution of other team members combined to make the girls region champs. The boys team, which had a record of 5-4, missed second place in region by only one point. As in the past, the tennis team was one of Riverwood's most successful teams.

SOCCER

Congratulations to the Varsity Soccer team who finished the 1981 season with an outstanding record of 6-3-1. Despite the many injuries, the newlywed coach, Jon Griffith gallantly led his fierce, young team to victory.

Though the team consisted of various species ranging from studious, young rookies, to veteran leaders, to wasted, flower children, they were unified by their common drive to upset their every opponent and glorify the bloody battle of soccer. Not even the team's practice field, a grassless, rocky, deserted wasteland, or the attacks of the deadly, flying discuses could stop these healthy, young feisties from coming away victorious.

TOUCHÉ!

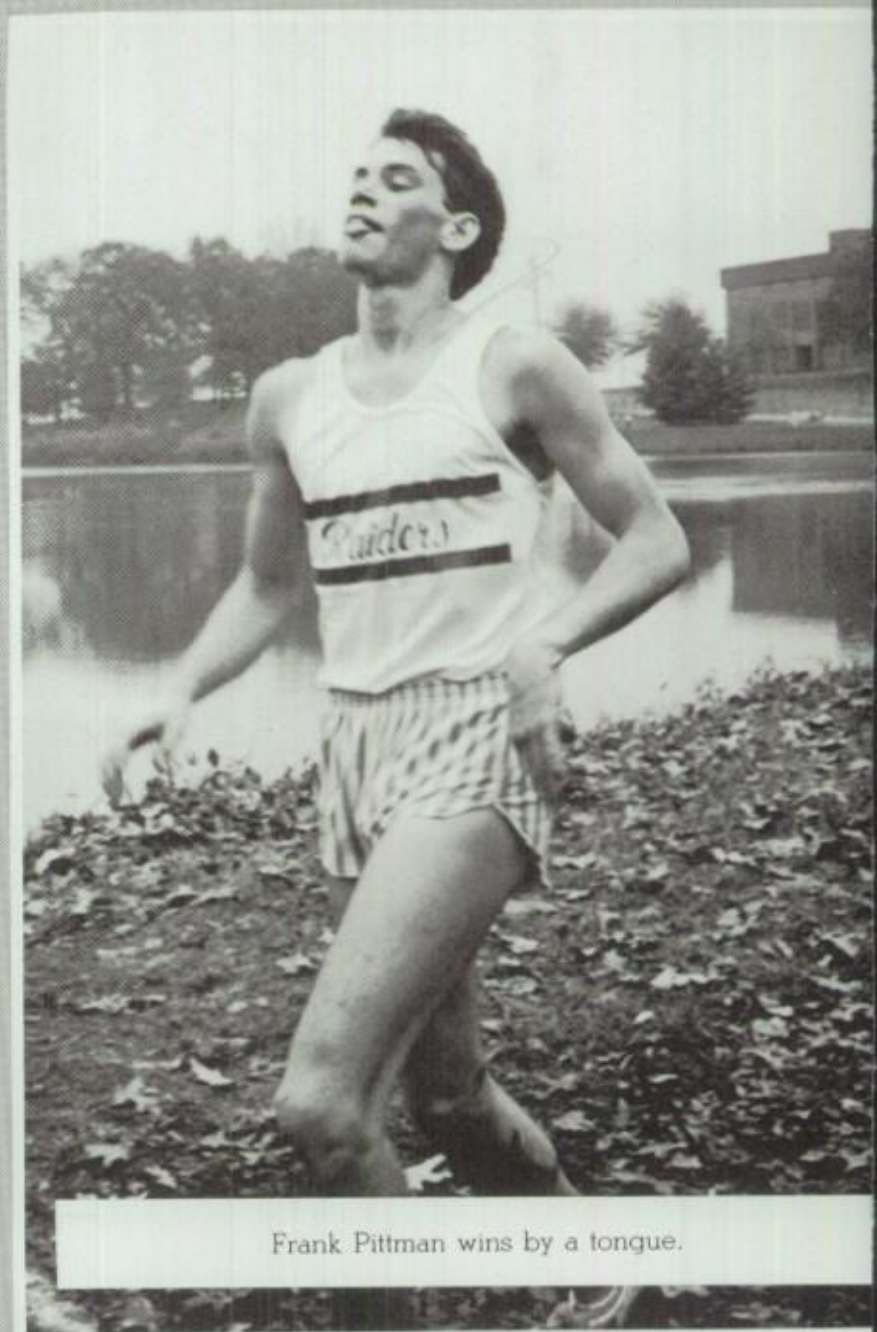

Riverwood loses face in Lovett game.

Karen, I just found your kilt pin.

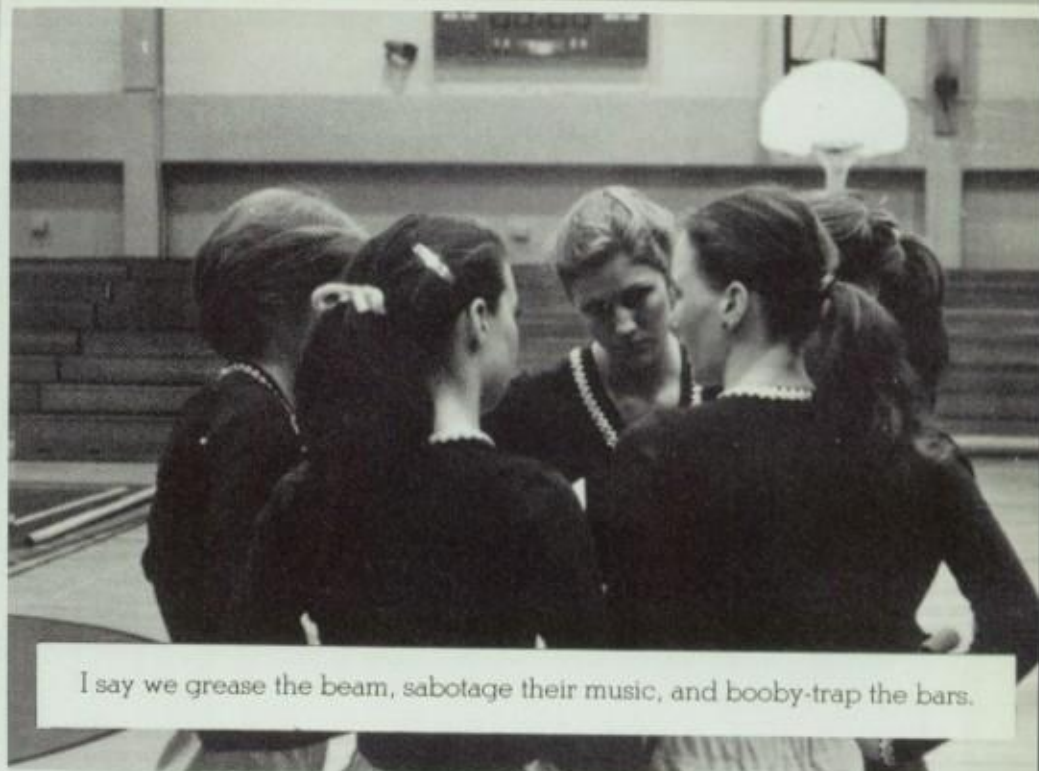

I'd rather be teaching.

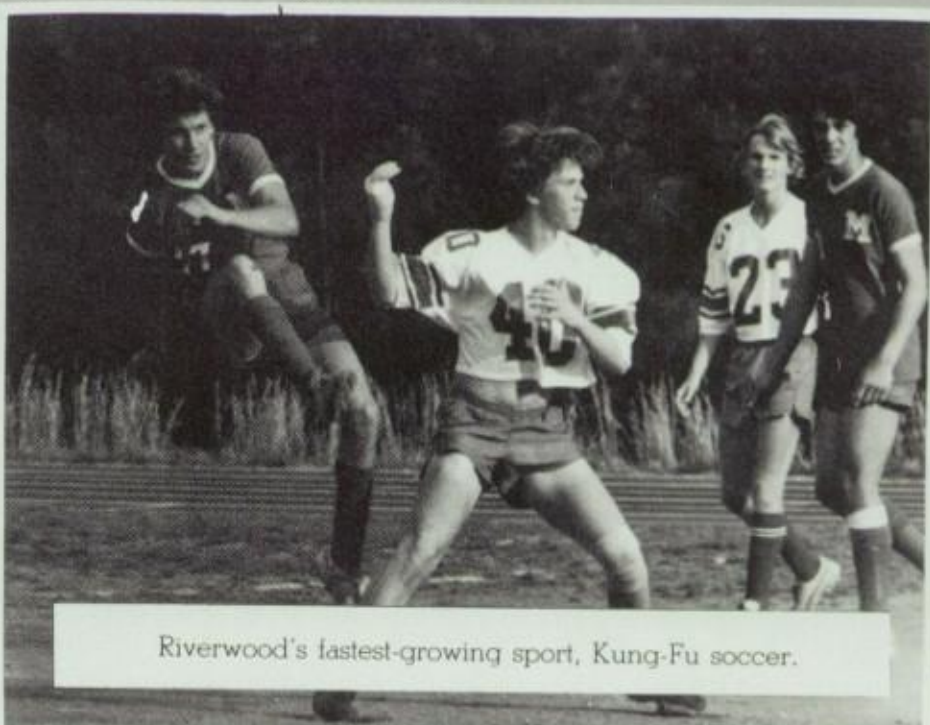

Frank Pittman wins by a tongue.

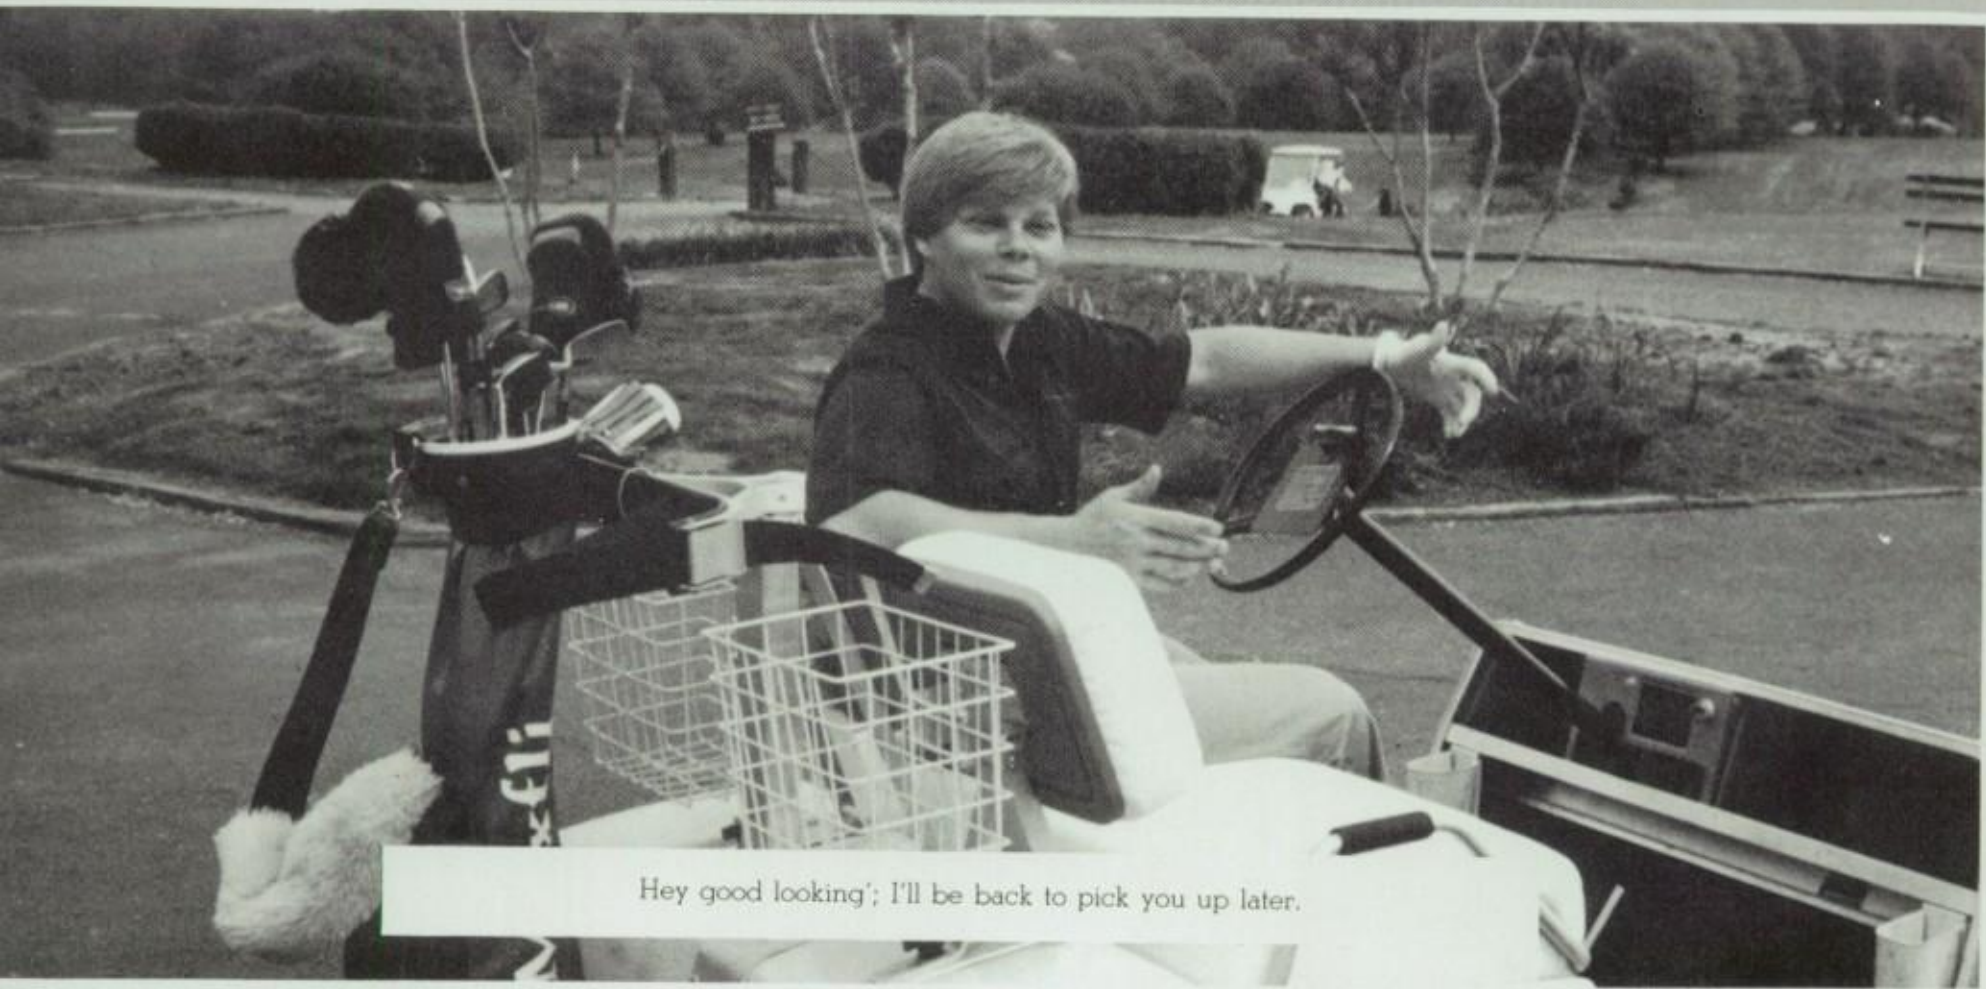

You should have thought of that before you came on the field.

I say we grease the beam, sabotage their music, and booby-trap the bars.

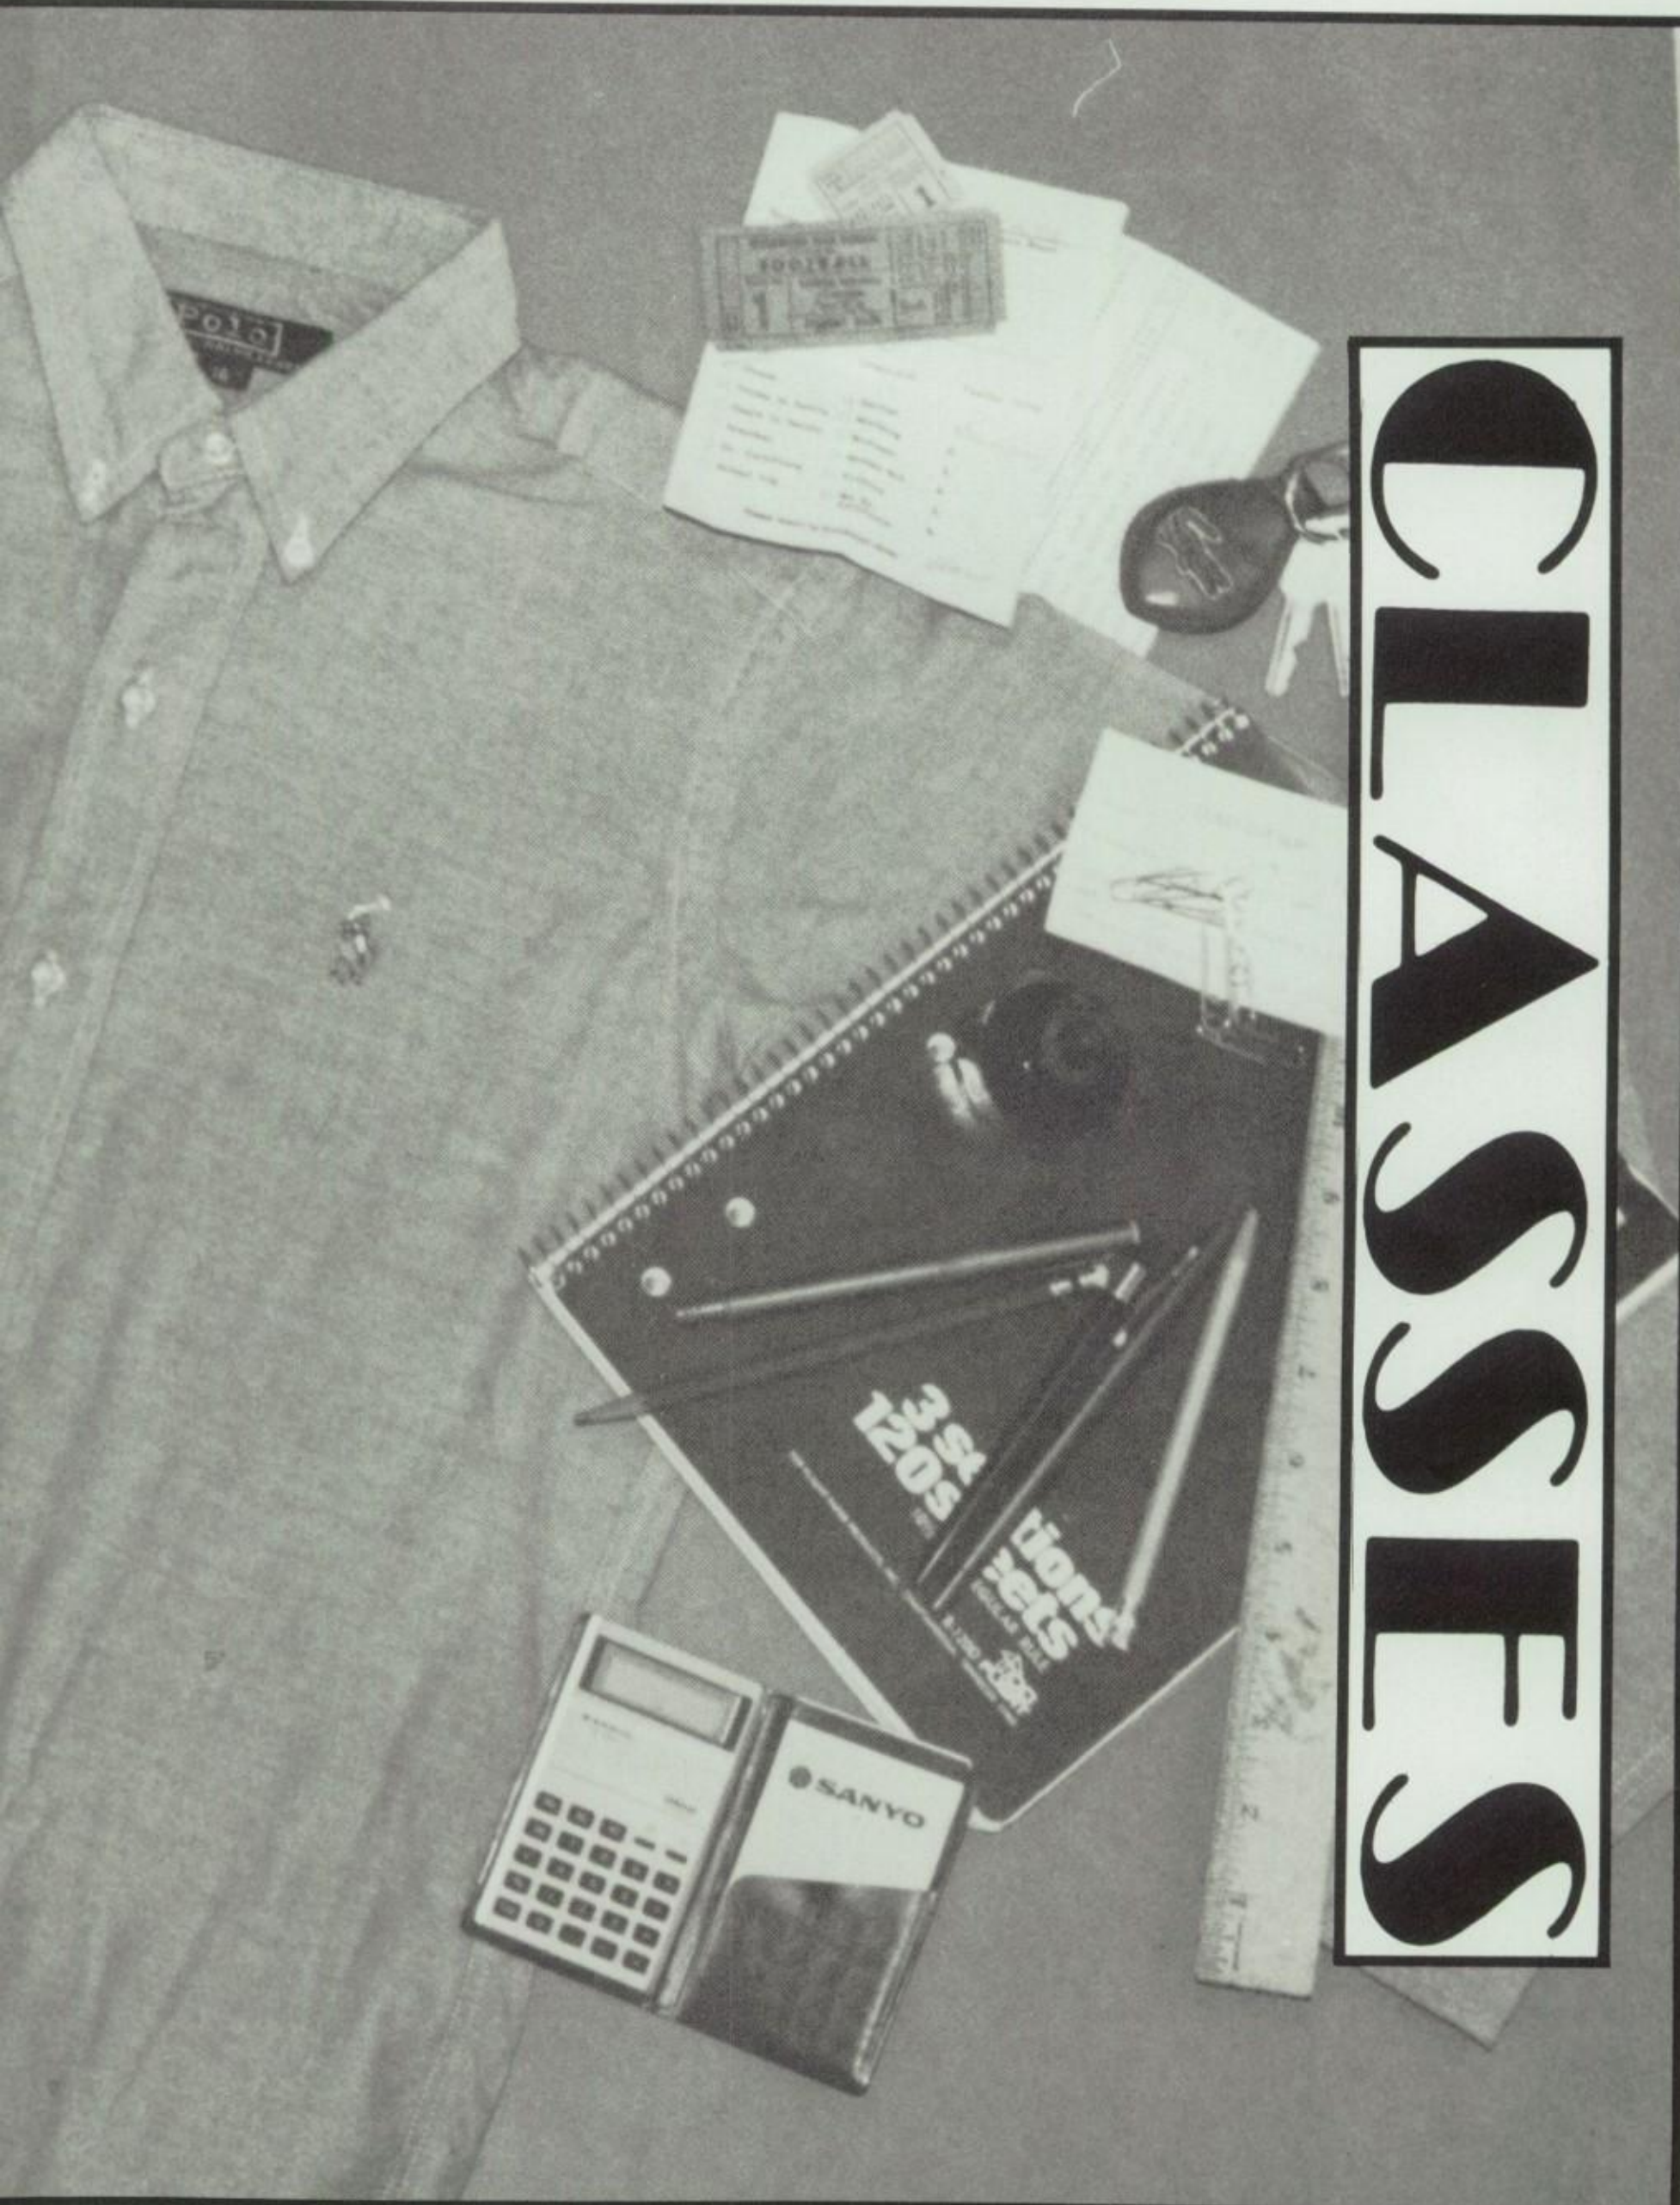

Riverwood's fastest-growing sport, Kung-Fu soccer.

Hey good looking'; I'll be back to pick you up later.

CLASSES

Sub-Freshmen

The Eighth grade officers are: Jessica Hart-Pres.; Chris Dean-V. Pres.; Sheldon Wray-Sec.; Tommy Atkinson-Treas. The sponsor is Ms. Fleming.

The classic Eighth grader, who gets lost in the halls and forgets his combination daily, has that unforgettable look of spirit about him. To older and wiser students, their dress seems ludicrous. However, those eighth graders do not let other people's opinion bother them, for on any given day, one can see hoards of them roaming the halls in their spirit attire. The appropriate attire for a young boy entering the eighth grade is jeans, tennis shoes, an infamous Riverwood P.E. shirt, and assorted accessories, including spirit ribbons and buttons. The appropriate attire for a young girl entering the eighth grade is the same. In addition, each Eighth grader keeps a constant supply of pep rally, elevator, and swimming pool passes handy in case of some emergency.

Freshmen

Pres.-Jay Perkins; V. Pres.-Jennie Ray; Sec.-Mary Raeber; Treas.-Sara Norris

Using the talents learned on the dance floor, the Riverwood freshmen negotiate their way through the slow-moving masses cramming the halls. By means of a series of twists, bumps, and other dance moves, they arrive at their homerooms. Mrs. Callum's voice floats over the airwaves, reminiscent of the disc jockey at the local disco. Later in the day, the students sit in their classes dreaming of Friday night while visions of John Travolta dance in their heads. And so Monday through Friday is lived in anticipation of the weekend, time well-spent in the company of experienced dancers, mirrored globes, and a strong beat.

With the coming of the 1980's, many fashions changed. The most drastic change was with a select group at Riverwood High, its 10th grade class. Lead by their president, Wade Padgett, this group started to wear clothes with other people names on them. The names were not ordinary names like Bill, or John, or Sue, but names like Sasson, Jordache, and Calvin Klein. The 10th grade class at Riverwood soon became known as the "LABELS".

But their influence did not stop at just their class. The idea spread like wildfire. Soon, more and more people became members of the "labels" group. And the idea is still spreading. Who knows what they will do next year when they are Juniors.

Juniors

Through all of the past years of creating this type of book, intended as a well rounded representation of our humble educational institution, the photographer has always had a burden, a menacing encumbrance of capturing the subject matter within a classical photograph without the blurr of movement. The photographer's quest for interesting and still subjects has been fruitless, up until the present. Our search has ended, our pursuit has been fulfilled, and we have discovered a cooperative, and rather permanent new breed of beings. They express true emotion without presenting the imperfection of a blurr. Furthermore, they come in a wide variety of shapes & sizes and they have interchangeable parts. They are true conformists, whose outer appearances range from western to punk, from conservative to radical. We describe this fashionable, motionless group of well figured subjects as, "society pleasers", society calls them manicans.

MOLLY SESSOMS

1966-1980

Her smile, her tear
A child so dear.
Her hope, her love,
Shared with our Father above.

W.W. Sessoms

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.

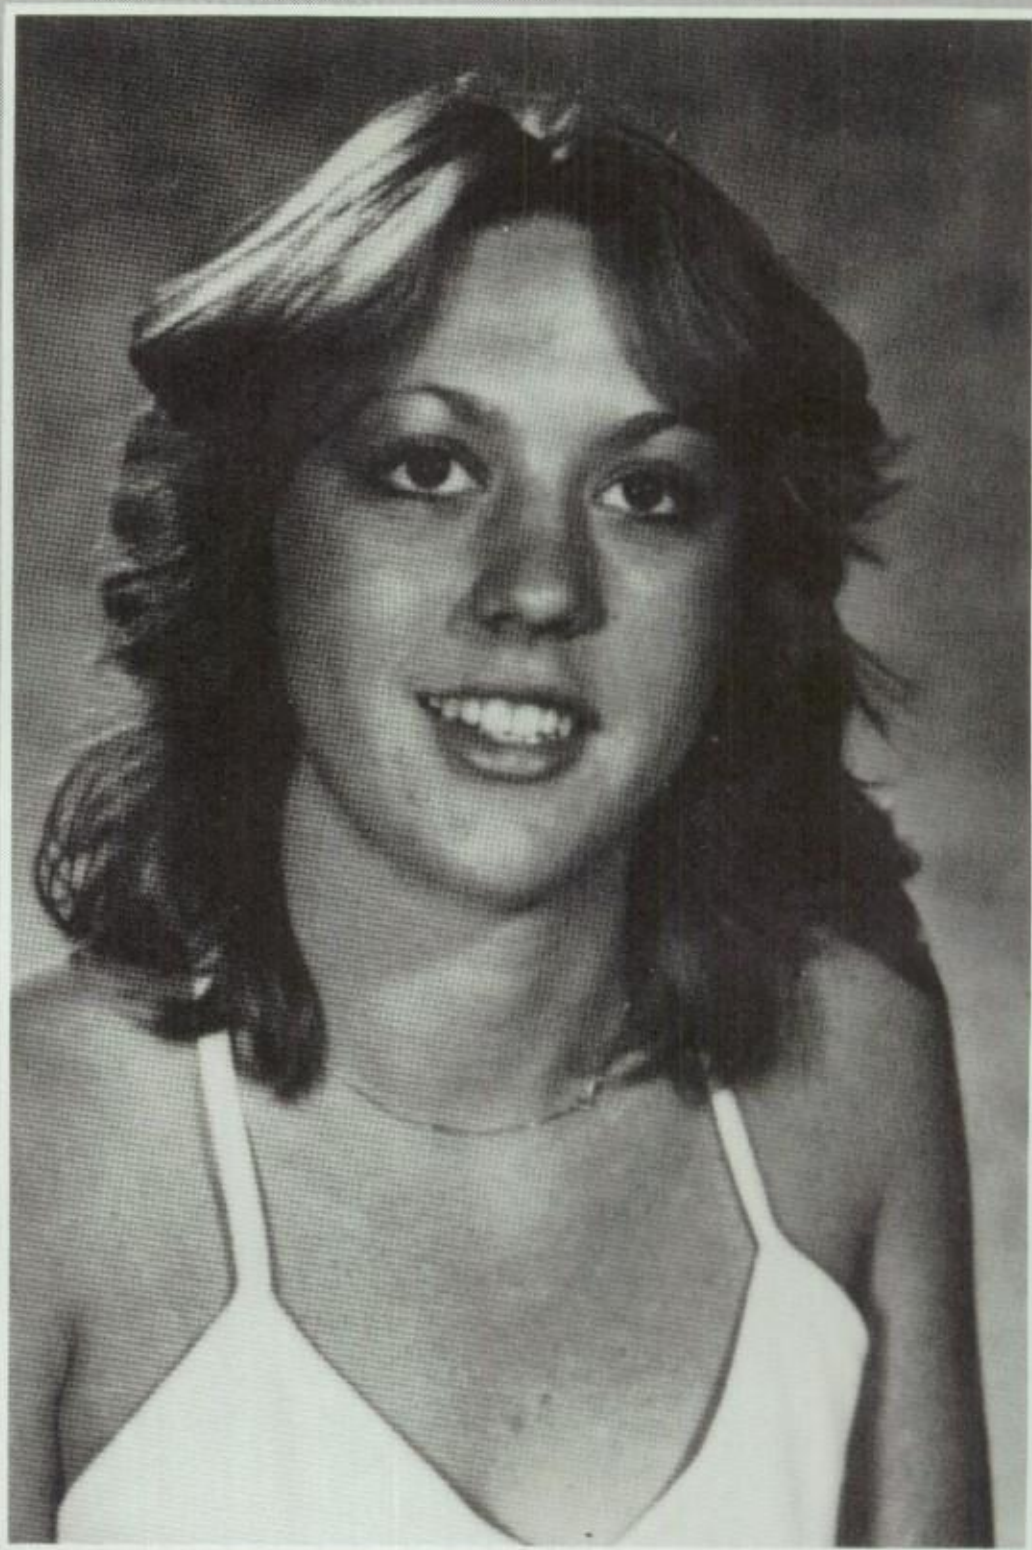

Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride;
It followed the light through the crevice-length
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view,
Were found the same as they were before;
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve
And make our courage faint or fall?
Nay, let us faith and hope receive;
The rose still grows beyond the wall,

Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will forevermore.

ESPECIALLY FOR JULIE

the wings of hope flutter in the sunlight straining to lift your dreams,
and carry them high on a mountaintop
to set them free in a stream,
the stream will bring them down to earth
and let them touch the world, as they quickly rush right back to you to fill your life with gold,
we pray you'll always look ahead,
yet remember one who's past,
we pray the Lord will grant you peace
and a happiness that will last.

It has been a pleasure to getting to know you this year. Having Mrs. Parker for Biology hasn't been the best place to get to know somebody, but we'll still team next year & am sure I will get to know you better. We have no practices or anything! Camp should be fun! we will only ~~be~~ learn about 10 routines a day!! anyway, I am looking forward to it & I am sure you are too! I am glad that you see it better! at least it happened before drill team next year. Stay as sweet & nice as you always have been. Have a great summer!
